JOAILLERIE PARIS

JEWELLERY ADRENALINE !

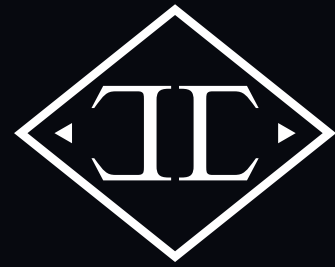

THE UNISEX FATAL ATTRACTION COLLECTION IS AIMED AT MODERN TIME ADVENTURERS, LOOKING FOR A RARE SENSORIAL EMOTION.

Akillis is never first degree. Like its creator and founder, Caroline Gaspard, the brand plays with the classic codes of jewelry to give life to a totem pendant, symbol of incomparable determination.

The goal of life that we achieve with conviction and righteousness without ever failing. This is what the Fatal Attraction collection represents. An evocative collection of adrenaline that seduces men and women, in search of an original design, capable of expressing their love for life in a different way.
